

Grant Application Information

Axient In Action is a non-profit entity organized and supported by the employees of Axient LLC. The mission of Axient In Action is to assist non-profit organizations with their endeavors in the communities in which Axient has a presence. Axient in Action is funded by employees of Axient and administered by the employees of Axient through a volunteer Board of Directors.

Non-profit organizations that are interested in receiving a grant from Axient in Action must meet the eligibility guidelines below. If the guidelines are met, non-profit organizations will be considered for a grant based upon information included on the enclosed Grant Application form and submitted to the Axient in Action Board of Directors.

Eligibility Requirements:

- 1. Services provided by the applicant must be available to all members of the community, regardless of sex, race, religion, political affiliation, background, or ability to pay.
- 2. Applicant must be currently recognized under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, and contributions shall be deductible by donors under section 170 of that code.
- 3. Applicant must be actively involved in projects/services that directly benefit a community in which Axient has a local presence.
- 4. Services rendered by a religious organization must be open to all people, regardless of their religious beliefs.

Ineligible Entities:

- Individuals
- Tax Supported Institutions
- Social Organizations
- Political Organizations
- Private Foundations
- Public or Private Educational Institutions

Grant Application Instructions

Complete grant applications must be:

1. Submitted on the official Axient in Action Grant Application Form
2. Submitted by identified deadline for consideration in the current cycle
3. Signed by an authorized official of your organization, as well as the Board President or Chairperson
4. Submitted electronically to axientinaction@axientcorp.com

Organizations that meet the application criteria and eligibility guidelines should be prepared to schedule a site visit with a Axient in Action representative. The representative may have additional questions and will request a tour of the facility.

Organizations receiving grants may be asked to send a representative to a Axient meeting to receive the award. Also, recipients must agree to allow Axient/Axient in Action to advertise the award via social media and other advertisement platforms. A high-resolution logo will be required.

Applications will be considered only for the current grant cycle and will not be revisited for future cycle; however, Axient in Action reserves the right to consider applications for a rolling 12-month period. Organizations may reapply, with updated information, during each grant cycle.
